

TELLER'S ELECTION REPORT (Harry Warner, Jr.)

I received 110 ballots. Two of them were not tabulated, because of improper voting procedures. The final results, based on 108 valid ballots that reached me through November 27, 1967:

For President: Donald Franson, 98; Stan Woolston, 2; Alma Hill, 1; Edward V. Dong, 1; John H. Steele, 1; Sheila Elkin, 1; Bob Tucker, 1; Harry Warner, Jr., 0*.

For Director, in order of appearance on ballot: Arthur Hayes, 49; Gary Labowitz, 51; C.W. (Ned) Brooks, Jr., 77; Roy Tackett, 45; Bob Vardeman, 46; Michael Viggiano, 37; Wally Weber, 58; Elaine Wojciechowski, 82; Stan Woolston, 82; Don Miller, 1; Jack Haldeman, 1; Douglas Clark, 1; Alan Joseph Ross, 1; Janie Lamb, 1; Elinor Poland, 1; Harry Warner, Jr., 0.

*One voter, whom I cannot name because of the hallowed tradition of the secrecy of the ballot, made me a write-in candidate but as a true friend, cast his vote for someone else.

Good Old Wally Weber did it again.

Official recommendation of official teller for future elections: Type or print your name in block letters somewhere on the ballot, or on the envelope conveying it, if your penmanship is poor. It was almost impossible to decipher the identity of several owners of illegible signatures with no return address.

THOSE VOTING IN NFFF ELECTION 1967:

Don Franson is new President with 98 votes.

The 5 elected Directors are Elaine Wojciechowski, Stan Woolston, Brooks, Weber and Labowitz.

((The above comes from Janie Lamb who received votesheets from Teller and checked to make sure all who voted were members.))

BIRTHDAY CARD PROJECT REPORT (January 1967 to December 1967)

A total of 314 birthday cards were sent to N3F members.

Stamp or money donations which were used to buy stamps were received from Al Lopez, Jim Lattimer, Jack Haldeman, Stan Woolston, Winston Dawson, Art Hayes, Don Franson, Leigh Couch, Amelia Ahlstrom and Ann Chamberlain. They donated a total of 469 stamps.

DIRECTORATE REPORT

(Ned Brooks, Chairman)

Moved, 9/27/67, that the NFFF Treasurer send Lealeigh Couch, N'APA OE, $25 for operational expenses, to be returned to the NFFF Treasury if and when the N'APA Treasury is recovered. Passed, all voting Aye except Owings, who did not vote.

Moved, 10/18/67, that K. Martin Carlson be awarded a Life Membership in the National Fantasy Fan Federation. Passed, all voting Aye except Owings, who abstained.

Moved, 11/3/67, that the Phil Bridges booklet recently distributed to the Directors be reprinted and distributed as an NFFF Fandbook, printing expenses not to exceed $30. This is now being voted on.

Moved, 11/3/67, that the NFFF support the publication of the "Meskys-Trimble" BOK ARTFOLIO by defraying half of the publishing costs, $35, on the understanding that NFFF members will be able to buy the Artfolio at $2.00, and that any profits from the sale of the folio go into worthy funds for the benefit of fandom. All Aye, except Owings not voting. PASSES.

Two other motions are before the Directorate; results will be reported to NFFF when results come in.

COLLECTOR'S BUREAU REPORT:

Bureau membership is about 130 now. Main projects in progress are indexes of the artwork of Hannek Bok and Edd Cartier, and an index of "series" stories. Copies of CB#7 are about exhausted, but CB#8 will appear soon.

Everyone, including current members, might write in and renew their activities, or begin activity in this group. This is a good time of the year to start.

STAR TREK MAY NOT OUTLIVE THIS SEASON

Gene Roddenberry of STAR TREK says that so far there has been no word of renewing the program for next season, and that it is highly likely the show will die unless something is done. Gene called Ejo Trimble (because she previously promised to publish a one-shot about the show if any need came up), and Ejo has sent out a notice asking for material about how to solve the problem of survival for this problem, probably to be published just after Christmas. She also needs addresses of interested people. Her address is 243 Santa Rosa Ave., Oakland, Calif. 94610.

January is the time to pick up the option, so this does not give interested people much time to act. You can write to advertisers, NBC or, through Roddenberry (at 780 N. Gower, Hollywood, Calif. 90038) to stars of the program. I suggest you write several, perhaps through local channels. If you have ideas how to make a campaign successful send them on, too; also if you belong to club or groups of fans formed around STAR TREK, send the information (including addresses of all members and officers you know) to Ejo, so she can send a copy of the one-shot publication. Tell information on any fanclubs such as dues, publications and the like, too. Remember, a campaign to save the program worked before and it was because of enthusiastic effort of lots of people--and so tell your friends to help if you want the program to survive.

Gene said the move to Friday night time slot had almost killed the show; the lively young-minded people who dig the show are also active enough to be "out" on Friday nights. Also, the Neilson ratings have been low on the show, although informal and "unofficial" polls by magazines have placed it very high on their lists. Now is the time to write NBC, etc. to help.

FOLLOW-UP BUREAU REPORT (MEMBERSHIP ACTIVITIES)

by Rick Johnson, 217 Drinnen Ave., Knoxville, Tenn. 37920

Poll forms are coming in daily from members of NFFF listing basic interests and activities of each person. When all are in the plan is to publish a booklet for Neffers containing information on clubmembers. It will contain the names and addresses of members who are interested in printing, correspondence, art, etc., and should prove to be a useful help to all. I urge those who haven't sent in a form to do so immediately so we can get the booklet out in the near future. If you do not have the form, write for one. Anyone who has any questions, ideas, or suggestions about the Follow-Up Bureau should write to me.

STATEMENT OF NEXT PRESIDENT OF NFFF

To meet the request of Stan Woolston, who asked for some early information for the December issue, here is an incomplete list of the 1968 officers, as appointed and confirmed so far:

- Secretary-Treasurer: Janie Lamb.
- Editor, The National Fantasy Fan: Donald Miller.
- Editor, Tightbeam for March, 1968: Gary Labowitz.
- Stand-by Editor of TNFF and Tightbeam: Wally Weber.
- Correspondence Bureau: Michael Dobson.
- Membership Activities Bureau: (Follow-up): Rick Johnson.
- Round Robins: Richard Labonte.
- Manuscript Bureau: Stan Woolston.
- Publicity Bureau: Michael Viggiano.
- Complaints Bureau (new): Bob Vardeman.
- Story Contest: Woolston and Viggiano.
- Information Bureau: Donald Franson.
- SF Lending Library: Elinor Poland.
- Official Historian and NFFF Trader: K. Martin Carlson.
- Birthday Card Project: Elaine Wojciechowski.
- New Member Packets: Janie Lamb.

Some others have been appointed or contacted but have not been heard from with a firm acceptance. A couple offices are still open but may be filled by January 1.

-- Donald Franson

THE PEOPLE WHO MAKE NEFF POSSIBLE...THE CONTRIBUTORS

Both the club as a whole and the official organ, THE NATIONAL FANTASY FAN, benefit from volunteers. Imagine what the official organ would have been this year without reviews, news items and art sent from fans wishing to participate. Reports fit that category too: all bureaus and committees, and the publishers, are volunteers. Now is the time for all who will help to inform the new administration and the new OE, and to provide the new life that makes the club possible.

As President this year I want to thank all who made the club possible in 1967. It seems I didn't list artists in the issues they contributed material: sorry about that. It seems things are always being forced out--like a list of present officers this issue. Don Miller will list all of them next time with addresses, in a January issue--so if you want to be represented in the first issue send material to get to him around the first of the year. As he is not apt to include art unless provided on stencil, and because it is so easy to force it out due to the expansiveness of words others send in, I suggest artists might design a heading to go on cover, put it on stencil, and send to him. It may help keep it from looking too much like his other zine, the WSFA JOURNAL. Also contribute direct to the official organ, rushing him the reviews and news he needs now and for each issue around the first of the month.

--Stan Woolston

Possibly one of these aren't a member of NFFF, but I will send a copy to them to be sure. Remember to renew--$1.75 to Janie Lamb, Rt. 1, Box 364, Heiskell, Tenn. 37754--and send her Changes of Address to prevent the need to list members without addresses, please--early. If you know any of the addresses needed, Janie will be hoping you send the information to her.

WRITERS' EXCHANGE / BY ALMA HILL

The Writers' Exchange is a do-it-ourselves manuscript criticism service for all writers, regardless of proficiency, in this field. Always keep a file copy of everything with you, since we work through the mail, which is not completely safe. Otherwise we have had no special rules or problems. For details, send an inquiry accompanied by a manuscript to the coordinator, Alma Hill, 463 Park Drive, Boston, Massachusetts 02215, USA.

The membership is nearly fifty and I'm about to write personal letters to find out which ones are active and still interested, since I mostly let things go along unhindered, but an occasional checkup may be called for. It appears the Writers' Exchange is partly an active service and partly a static one--that is, standing by in case it is needed. If you feel the need of improving your manuscript you are invited to send yours in.

NEW FANZINE APPRECIATION SOCIETY (Report by Paul Crawford)

Six fen have contacted me since the last report, bringing the NFAS roster up to its 15 member limit. This won't, of course, mean that other fen can't enter NFAS, simply that they must wait until the third issue of TNFF following this one for their names to be published, after the earliest members on the current list are dropped.

Members to be dropped will be notified by an asterisk (*) placed by their name in the last issue of TNFF in which it will appear (the third). They may then renew by the same means used for initial membership--sending a card. (It's not necessary to write the pledge out--just state that you will uphold it.)

Pledge: "I want to receive fanzines. Please send me your fanzine, and I'll appreciate it. I promise to respond in some way, either by sending letter of comment, trade, subscription, or by contributing material. I have enough time right now to respond to fanzines sent me."

-I-N-F-O-R-M-A-T-I-O-N- =B-U-R-E-A-U- Column #28. by Donald Franson.

This column is something of a summary, of the information given in personal letters over the past few months. Information Bureau questions have fallen off recently, perhaps because of the infrequent publication of this column. This need not be a barrier, since questions are answered promptly when asked (within a few weeks) by postcard or letter. Any member wanting some information on science fiction, fantasy, fandom or the N3F (those four subjects only) may write me direct, and I will answer to the best of my ability.

WALTER WENTZ wanted some addresses of old-time Merrittophiles -- most of which I couldn't supply. He is presently engaged in finishing up the research for a second edition of the Merritt biblio. Anyone having a copy of the Hearst American Weekly newspaper Sunday section for Sep. 23, 1923, containing W. Fenimore's "Pool of the Stone God" would make Walt happy by lending it for copying, or contacting him. Apparently "Fenimore" is a pen-name of Merritt himself.

DAVE CANTRELL legally exceeded the five-question limit by writing twice. He asked whether the now-defunct Warhoon was a Burroughs fanzine. No, it was not, though the name would seem to indicate this. It was largely a serious-discussion zine, of the intellectual type. He asks about paperback collections of Lovecraft. Because of Lovecraft's stories appearing in Arkham House editions pretty exclusively, there haven't been many paperback editions. The Dunwich Horror, Bartholomew House, 1945; The Weird Shadow Over Innsmouth, 1944; and The Lurking Fear, Avon, 1947 were all there were until recently, when Lancer brought out The Color Out of Space; Ballantine, The Survivor, and Belmont, The Case of Charles Dexter Ward.

Dave asks, re the N3F, "What is the Kaymar Award?" The Kaymar Award is a very generous and continuous annual gift to the N3F by K. Martin Carlson. It rewards achievement by some N3F member over a long period of time, and is not for talent, but for work, in the interests of the club. Carlson has contributed books, a cash award, a certificate, paid-up memberships, etc., and also has charge of the method of selection of winners, by a committee. And, "How long has Janie Lamb been Secretary and/or Treasurer of the N3F?" Janie has been Secretary since 1953, and Treasurer since 1955, the two offices having been re-combined then, as they were at first, when the N3F started.

And finally, Dave asks, "What fanzines can you get for a letter of comment?" What fanzines can't you get? But you can't write a letter of comment without seeing the fanzine first. Send for a copy, paying the small sum mentioned (there are some even free for the asking) and then comment on it...you can keep this up as long as you want without spending another cent, most of the time. Or join the New Fanzine Appreciation Society, and trusting faneds may send you their zines, as long as you do your part after you get them, by commenting, contributing, or subscribing.

Oops--left out something. Dave Cantrell wanted to know about sequels to Eric Rucker Eddison's "Worm Ouroboros" ("Mistress of Mistresses" is the only actual sequel), and if there was a fan club for Eddison as well as C.S. Lewis, George McDonald or Charles Williams. Nothing organized that I know of, but there are many fans of Eddison as well as of C.S. Lewis's "Narnia" series.

ROY TACKETT liked Wilson Tucker's "The Long Loud Silence" and says, "Somewhere I have heard that Tucker actually wrote two endings to the book and that both of them have been published in variant editions." Bob Tucker is a member of N3F, so instead of answering this (or admitting I don't know the answer) why not invite Bob to write an article for TNFF, entitled "Why I wrote 'Long Loud Silence' the way I did? Why should FAPA and Yandro get all the gravy?"

"PROGRESS REPORT" OF STORY CONTEST ANNOUNCED BY MIKE VIGGIANO

Winners of the Story Contest are to be announced in the first TNFF of '68. Twenty-two stories were entered, and 7 of them were finalists. Three stories came from Britain and three stories from non-members, each paying a fee giving us $1.50. With more publicity the low entry fee may enable us to get a fund to help pay some of the prize money.

MANUSCRIPT BUREAU NEWS (Michael Viggiano for 1967)

Material on hand for the Manuscript Bureau has been sent on to the new Chief, Stan Woolston. Send him artwork, fanfiction, articles, poetry, reviews and other materials that faneditors seek--and, if you are an editor, information on the type of material you will want. You may send material and request it at the same time, as one advantage of using the Bureau is the variety it provides, and the way your material can be spread around! Artwork and articles are especially sought, but also reviews of current material in book and magazine form, and columns. If you will contribute regularly it will be especially helpful. Send material to Stan Woolston, 12832 Westlake St., Garden Grove, Calif 92640.

I should close out MSBureau with over 100 contributions published in fanzines. Thanks to everyone who contributed.

CORRESPONDENCE BUREAU

Michael E. Dobson

These people are quite interesting people, and would enjoy hearing from you very much.

Michel Barnes, age 15 (1716 Summerlane, Decatur, Ala. 35601) is a soon-to-be N3F member who wants to see what fandom is like before risking cash money. His interests include Heinlein, Sheekley, Doc Savage, Ted Mark, Bohemia (The Village Voice), Marvel Comix, Sex in general, Philosophy, Females, Art (Cheesecake), etc.

Rebecca Wells, Age 15 (1407 13th Ave., Decatur, Ala. 35601) and Rose Bergman, age 15 (2308 Quince Drive, Decatur, Ala. 35601) are also soon-to-be N3F members interested in finding out more about fandom. Becky is a Tolkien fan; she loves Russian authors and Simak. Rose enjoys folk music, likes Simak, Heinlein, Sheekley and Tolkien among others.

Bob Roehm, Age 19 (316 E. Maple St., Jeffersonville, Ind. 47130) is a freshman at Indiana U., sf maniac; among his hobbies he is trying to collect everything Robert A. Heinlein ever wrote and everything that pertains to him. He is also a fan of the Legion of Super-Heros in Adventure Comix, a fan of Star Trek, and is a Heinlein super-fan.

NEFFER AMATEUR PRESS ALLIANCE ELECTION BEING HELD

Don Miller and Roy Tackett have declared their candidacy for the job of Official Editor of the Neffer Amateur Press Alliance. If anyone else declares their candidacy all will be listed on a ballot I asked Don Miller to prepare, and the ballot will also contain a blank space for a write-in if the declared candidates don't fit the member's desires. If N'APA members will check future TNFFs they will probably find results--and there may be a notice sent directly to Alliance members to report results.

The 1967 Directorate voted $25 for emergency use till N'APA funds are available, and Lesleigh Couch, OE for September mailing, sent funds on to Don Miller, along with information relating to the job. Don Miller says membership requests are over 30 now; as only 40 are allowed, anyone who has fanpubbing interests and abilities should write Don Miller at once, at 12315 Judson Rd., Wheaton, Md. 20906.

///INFORMATION BUREAU, continued...A letter from STEVE SUMMERS asks about a pamphlet that tells the activities and purposes of various bureaus in the N3F. Unfortunately, such a pamphlet does not exist, but would be very useful to new members, and an effort will be made to compile and publish one soon.

Yet another question about the Hugo Awards, from SHERRY D. HALE. It's time to update and reprint the Handbook, "Some Historical Facts About SF Fandom", which was published by the N3F in 1962, and gave such facts as the Hugo Awards, International Fantasy Awards, dates of conventions, TAFF winners, etc. When this is updated and published it should include 1967 facts, with some new things such as the Nebula Awards. Don't ask for it yet; we've got to do it first!(though I have all the facts needed, somewhere).

JOHN J.

PIERCE asks several questions about various authors which involve opinion rather than information, which I couldn't answer very well, but did the best I could. When you send in questions not only make them brief and to the point, but make it possible for me to make brief answers... someone(not John) asked "Send me all the information you have about fandom, the NFFF, fanzines, genzines, etc." Even the Fancylopedia wouldn't compare with the letter I'd have to write with the answer to that one.

PAUL WILLIS wanted to know if there was a checklist to the illustrations for Clark Ashton Smith's stories. I doubt this, but some day there may be a list of the artists for all the illustrations in the magazines -- this may be included in some really complete magazine index, on the model of Al Lewis's annual editions(1961-(62-63)).

ROBERT WIL-

LINHAM asked what bureaus of the N3F published their own zines. At present, only the Collectors' Bureau and the Games Bureau, though there have been others in the past.

And that's all they wrote...

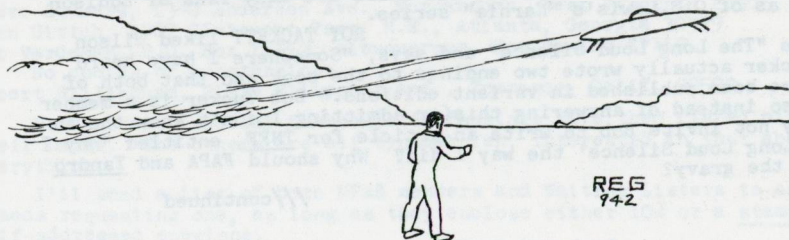

-Donald Francon.

BOSTON NEWS -- from Leslie Turek

A THANK YOU!!

A big surprise came my way in a letter from Janie Lamb, our Secretary. She told me that I had been given a LIFE
MEMBERSHIP in NFFF!! The Directorate had voted on it so it was official.
Many thanks to all of you who were in on this.

You know, it is quite an honor to be on the LIFE roll. There were only
4 or 5 who had this honor, AND NOW I AM ONE OF THEM!

I guess I am one of the oldest of the members. I have been a member since 1945. But I had no idea that I would be chosen for a LIFE MEMBERSHIP.

Again, I wish to thank you all!
