Reviews

Heide Nichols: Patricia Briggs has a new book out, Winter Lost. She had high expectations because it's normally a very involved, mythological background series. There's a lot of discussion about magic, but she found it kind of eh.

Nick Smith: American Born Chinese is just a few episodes along, but it's absolutely brilliant as a mixture of modern fantasy and Chinese folklore.

Miscellaneous

Thomas Safer remarked on MeTV Toons. He called Spectrum; they're not offering it yet.

Charles Lee Jackson II also contacted Spectrum. They might swap out Catchy Comedy for MeTV Toons if it takes off.

put the money back into the fund sooner because he is leaving on Aug. 1.

30-Second Reports

Significant Others

Club President (Cathy Johnson): We're still meeting on Zoom, with two live meetings in the recent past. The Czech consulate meeting was successful and enjoyable; the film was worth seeing. The hosts were kind and wonderful. This week at Denny's, healthy attendance in person as well as on Zoom.

Regarding the proposed By-Laws change: Reading on July 25 and a vote on Aug. 1.

Webmistress (Kristine Cherry): Not present. Gavin Claypool has not been receiving board emails. Please add him to the distribution list.

Open Forum

Eylat Poliner: It has been 10 years since we have raised our dues. She proposed a raise from $4 to $5 dollars per meeting.

Elayne Pelz: This is a Standing Rules issue. Write it up and come back to the board.

Gavin Claypool: This must be in writing, either by three or more members, or as an action of the board. Reading, and possible discussion and amendments at a meeting, and vote at the next meeting.

Matthew B. Tepper proposes that he, Poliner, and one more write a proposal. How about the membership fee? $20, $15, $12? Probably not a big impact.

Dean Johnson: Is there a difference between percentage for voting; is it 2/3 for Standing Rules? No, simple majority, 50 percent plus one.

Westercon mark to be discussed in September.

Some. Revised version of an amendment to the By-Laws, previously discussed.

CLJ II mentioned that Gavin corrected our procedures, so that members need to be notified of the special voting at the next meeting.

As it reads presently:

Article III: Directors.

Section 1. Number and Qualifications.

- A. The authorized number of Directors, as stated in the Articles of Incorporation, is eleven.
- B. Each Director must be 18 years of age or older at the time of their election.
- C. When elected, and continuously while serving, each Director shall meet the following qualifications:
 1. Be an Attending Member, and have maintained such Attending Membership for at least 156 regular Society meetings;
 2. Be an Attending Member continuously during the previous 52 regular Society meetings, unless prevented from doing so by a medical condition or by being temporarily absent from the area;

3. Reside within Los Angeles County, Kern County, Orange County, Riverside County, San Bernardino County, or Ventura County;

It is proposed to revise the By-Laws as follows:

Revise III.1.C.3. to read:

3. Reside in the states of California, Nevada, Arizona, or Oregon.

Insert III.1.D. and III.1.E. as follows:

D. At no time shall there be more than three Directors residing outside of Los Angeles County, Kern County, Orange County, Riverside County, San Bernardino County, or Ventura County.

E. In the event that three Directors already reside outside of the counties specified in III.1.C.3., and another Director changes residence to one outside of the counties specified in III.1.C.3., that Director shall be required to vacate their office as a Director. ["In the event that" instead of "Should an occasion arise" and "vacate" instead of "forfeit"]

Renumber all following paragraphs appropriately.

This will require a 2/3 vote of attending members to pass.

Allan Rothstein, whom we miss terribly. Praised by Matthew Tepper, as a good friend, the second person to shelter him while Matthew was writing his opera; CLJ II, as a gentleman and an officer, and Disneyland companion; three cheers.

Matthew B. Tepper, who is in the room so we could hardly miss him. Kindly non-roasted by Eylat, friend of many years, her bestie's husband, Editor, and saved the club in 2020 when Steven Barnes suggested the way. Chris Marble described him as the best Groucho Marx imitator. CLJ II has known Matthew since he was a boy and beardless, then bearded youth. Thomas Safer thinks of Matthew as a very good friend, appreciates the same music as Thomas does, and wishes Matthew good luck with his opera. Stepson Ben Levin appreciates that he tells nice stories, he's very "Matthew," and that Matthew feeds him. Wife Debra Levin says he's a good guy, he's good to Debra and Ben, and she loves him. Heide Nicholas says Matthew is one of the best proofreaders for grammar or spelling or just to make your writing sound good. Eylat has a "Surrealism In Everyday Life" item, more of a caution: If your email address that you use with your credit card; if you enter that email address into some other place, like a library, it might transmit your financial and personal information to that place. She was helping a client to set up their new computer, and demonstrating with her own email; but somehow Microsoft tried to charge Eylat on her own credit card. Eylat tried to remove her email address but the system wouldn't let her, without a smartphone (which the client did not have). Be very careful if you use public computers, establish a generic email address that is used for public computers or other places to protect your assets.

Reviews

James de Tar: The Creator on Amazon Prime. Future war between human race and artificial intelligence. He liked it, special effects well done, plot made him ponder. Not like The Terminator. Ending was satisfying. Recommended.

Derek LaPorte: Alien: Romulus—the first hour was excellent world building. Then it fell off and got a little “iffy” toward the end. Five Decembers by James Kestro, 2021 Hard Case Crime novel, a mystery taking place before the bombing of Pearl Harbor. They do write ‘em like they used to! Quite good.

Miscellaneous

Eylat had a good job report “meets or exceeds expectations” sigh of relief.

Thomas: Will miss us because he’s starting church choir meetings Thursdays next week. Concert will be Dec. 3 of brand new music (to Thomas)

Heide: Her quilting guild makes bags for kids with cancer at Loma Linda Cancer Center Children’s Hospital. She needs age-appropriate books for teenagers, if you have any, can pick up at Strategicon or Loscon. Paperbacks in good condition.

Eylat: Collecting homemade hats for cancer patients. And a benefit auction for American Cancer Society, we need donations of Good Stuff

CLJ II: Cartography is tough. Drawing all them straight lines. But his father, a mechanical artist, would be pleased at CLJ II’s drawing a map directly from his imagination, for the past two months. Drawing the map has taken about as long as writing the story about the town!

No aftermeeting tonight, Cathy is still recovering and needs her rest.

Reviews
Lee Grixit reviewed the anime Terminator Zero. It is on Netflix.

Nick reviewed Cinecon very favorably, really cool if you like classic films.

Miscellaneous

Tom Safer had intended to go to choir practice only to find out that there was a power outage. Because that meant no air conditioning, the choir went home.

CLJ II: Today marks 24 years since he became an orphan. It's also the anniversary of the birth of his baby sister.

Lee noticed a news article about a burglar who got distracted by a book in his victim's home, and got caught. The book was The Gods at Six O'Clock, a retelling of the Iliad from the viewpoint of the gods.

Nola had trouble with the link last week, but cut and pasted it this week and that worked. She reported that she could read the Loscon progress report on her phone. She also asked about a list for folks who wanted to share a room at the con. Eylat responded that Echo Skyhorse is working on just such a thing.

Matt pointed out that James Darren was also in T.J. Hooker.

Tom Safer and Anna are celebrating their anniversary this Saturday.

No aftermeeting tonight because Cathy is still recuperating.

Member News

Effective Jan. 1, 2025, LASFS dues will be increasing to the following amounts:

Weekly dues: $5
Monthly dues: $15
Yearly dues: $170

Lynn Maners died Dec. 1. Reports indicate that there will not be a service. His participation in and contributions to the LASFS will be missed by many.

Marcia Minsky and Joe Zeff emailed the following:

This is from a friend of mine. Thought I'd pass it along to you.

I have had many CPR classes over the years but was never told this: Have you ever thought about [this]: When you are alone and have a heart attack, what are you gonna do then? ...

1. ... Let's say it's 5:25 p.m. and you're driving home after an unusually hard day's work.

2. You are really tired and frustrated. All of a sudden [you feel] chest pains. They are starting to radiate in the arm and jaw. It feels like being stabbed in the chest and heart. You're only a few miles away from the nearest hospital or home.

3. Unfortunately, you don't know if you can make it...

4. Maybe you've taken CPR training, but the person running the course hasn't told you how to help yourself.

5. How do you survive a heart attack when you're alone when it happens? A person who is feeling weak and whose heart is beating hard has only about 10 seconds before losing consciousness.

6. But you can help yourself by coughing repeatedly and very strongly! Deep breaths before every cough. Coughing should be repeated every second until you arrive at the hospital or until your heart starts to beat normally.

7. Deep breathing gives oxygen to your lungs and coughing movements boost the heart and blood circulation. Heart pressure also helps to restore a normal heartbeat. Here's how cardiac arrest victims can make it to the hospital for the right treatment.

9. For women: You should know that women have additional and different symptoms. [They] rarely have crushing chest pain or pain in the arms. [They] often have indigestion and tightness across the back at the bra line plus sudden fatigue.

Nevertheless she regenerated!

A 2019 article posted by the University of Chicago Medicine (<https://tinyurl.com/heartattack-coughing>) suggests that while there is some truth to the above, "[M]ost heart rhythms are more complex than a single cough can handle. ... Simply coughing will not always correct an irregular chaotic rhythm, and it cannot prevent the patient from going into cardiac arrest."

The article indicates that the best initial response is to call 911. If you or someone else is properly trained, start CPR and, if available, use an automatic external defibrillator (AED).

Clubzine Exchange

In addition to sending De Prof to the LASFS membership, we also send copies to about 40 sf clubs around the world. Some of them reciprocate with their own publications, which I can forward to LASFSans upon request. Just ask for what you'd like to receive by name.

Call for Submissions

Do you write or draw? Not only is De Profundis open to news items and member updates, members of the LASFS participate in two amateur press associations.

APA-L is weekly and collated by Heath Row. If you'd like to consider joining APA-L, contact him to express interest. We're especially interested in cover art, which you can submit without joining. Former members can request access to the online archives.

LASFAPA is monthly and collated by David Schlosser. You can contact him at schloss17@suddenlink.net to express interest in joining LASFAPA. Former members can request access to the online archives. (We're up to #98 in terms of scanning!)

And if you'd like to contribute otherwise but not necessarily on a regular basis, Heath Row publishes a monthly fanzine titled The Stf Amateur. The most recent issue is available upon request. He'd welcome your fanart, poetry, filk songs and lyrics, fiction, articles, essays, reviews, jokes, and other material. Contributors will receive the issue in which their material appears.

Who knows: If there's enough active member interest—i.e., submissions—maybe we'll return to publishing Shangri-L'Affaires, too. Wouldn't that be neat?
